How long has it been since you did something you'll remember for a lifetime?

The
The Sacred Ride

May 26-30, 2010

UNFORGETTABLE

Join us for a remarkable retreat in the heart of the Cascade Mountains, in the company of like hearted women, in the care of experienced guides.

Be welcomed to the land by an 18 hh giant - whose gentle shadow follows as you walk amongst the herd. There, in a creek-lined meadow, you are visited by horses who are balanced and loved, who choose to approach, to inquire, sharing space with you on their terms, in their own way.

You're on horse time now...

See your reflection in the eye of the horse.

Look closely, and know...

There is more to horses than just "the ride". Partnership over ownership. Companionship over conquest.

The power comes in connection.

There is much practical discussion about centered & balanced riding. Finding your center, your balanced core, enhances all relationships, equine & human. As Winston Churchill said, "There is something about the outside of a horse that is good for the inside of man." Horses teach us to bridge intellect with instinct. When we move away from being task-oriented, to the rewards of being in the moment, communication translates from ground work to work under saddle, and we develop as human beings as well as horse - people.

The Sacred Ride is a one of a kind opportunity to spend time with horses during reflective ground work, wilderness riding and creative activities designed to inspire.

Join us for an extraordinary experience.

The Sacred Ride... Unforgettable.
